4 CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE AND THE ASX

4.1 Continuous disclosure

As a public company listed on ASX, the Company is subject to continuous and periodic disclosure requirements under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the ASX Listing Rules. The Company has adopted a Continuous Disclosure Policy to ensure compliance with its continuous disclosure obligations.

In addition to continuous disclosure, the Company will make certain periodic disclosures as required by law (as well as the ASX Listing Rules) and/or contemplated by the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations which will be made available on the ASX website.

All ASX announcements will be made available on the website promptly following ASX's confirmation that the information has been released on the ASX market announcements platform.

4.2 Communications with the ASX

All communications with the ASX will be made in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules.

The Company Secretary or his or her representative is responsible for all communications with ASX.

5 WRITTEN COMMUNICATION AND ANNUAL REPORT

Shareholders have been given the opportunity to elect and receive a printed copy of the Annual Report from the Company. In addition, the Company publishes its Annual Report on the Company Website and the ASX website.

6 COMPANY MEETINGS

The Company recognises the importance of shareholder participation at its meetings, including the AGM and extraordinary general meetings which may be convened from time to time. The Company seeks to maximise shareholders' ability to participate in the general meeting process by:

- (a) distributing notice of meetings to shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth);
- (b) where practicable, ensuring that all directors of the Company, members of the management team and the external auditor are available to shareholders at the meeting;
- (c) allowing shareholders in attendance a reasonable opportunity to ask questions regarding the items of business, including questions to the external auditor regarding the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the auditor's report;
- (d) providing shareholders who are unable to attend the meeting with an opportunity to submit questions in advance of the meeting;
- (e) allowing shareholders to lodge proxies electronically;
- (f) ensuring all substantive resolutions at a meeting of shareholders are decided by a poll rather than a show of hands; and
- (g) where practicable, using technology to encourage shareholder participation at meetings (which may include, for example, live webcasting of meetings, holdings meetings across multiple venues linked by live telecommunications and hybrid meetings).

7 ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

Technology has allowed the Company to more effectively communicate with its stakeholders. Accordingly, the Company has put in place arrangements such that:

- (a) shareholders can elect to receive communications from, and send communications, to us and the Company's share registry electronically;
- (b) the Company's email system allows team members and stakeholders to communicate simply and easily with management and our wider team; and
- (c) shareholders can elect to receive the Company's annual report electronically or in hard copy through the mail.

8 QUESTIONS

Please contact the Company Secretary for any queries about our Communications Policy.

9 REVIEW OF POLICY

The policy will be reviewed regularly periodically and updated as required to ensure it remains consistent with current law and practice. The latest version of this policy can be found on the Company's website or obtained from the Company Secretary.
